eStatements

Are you ready to "go green"?

eStatements are an option for HOMEBanker<sup>SM</sup> and BUSINESSBanker<sup>SM</sup> users. More than 1,000 customers are already receiving monthly statements for their GSB checking, savings, money market and CD accounts on their computers rather than in the mailbox. In addition to reducing the amount of paper that comes into the home, they will have the convenience of an 18-month statement history available online.

Check images continue to be available through our online HOMEBanker banking program. There is no charge for eStatements, HOMEBanker or BUSINESSBanker, but registration is required. Visit www.gsb.com for information and a demo.

A Message from the President

We recently marked the 89th anniversary of the opening of Glenview State Bank. Actually, it was 90 years ago that the businessmen who started the bank set up shop in a back room of Rugen's Hardware store. In 1921 they moved across the street to their new building which still stands at 1825 Glenview Road. Much has changed over the years, but the name has remained Glenview State Bank.

So when we opened our 8th branch in February of this year, some people inquired about the name – Mount Prospect State Bank, a Branch of Glenview State Bank. We felt it was an appropriate title for a branch staffed by a respected group of veteran bankers long established in the Mount Prospect area who share our banking and civic responsibility philosophy. You can "meet" them at <http://mpsb.gsb.com> or stop by and say hello. The bank is located at 20 E. Northwest Highway in Mount Prospect across from the Metra station. Their former and new customers appreciate seeing familiar faces, having walk-up teller service available at 7:00 AM, the 24-hour ATM and our PIGGYBanker<sup>SM</sup> self-serve coin counter in the lobby.

Paul Jones

You've probably seen other unfamiliar names as some local banks come under new ownership. We are grateful that GSB has remained a locally-owned community bank. The loyalty and support of our customers allows us to continue that 89 year tradition.

Thank you for banking with us.

Paul Jones
President
